

Directions from Modbury

You will enter Modbury from the top of the town. Go down the hill, the main street through the town and out the other side, through some squiggly bits at the bottom.

After about 1½ to 2 miles you will arrive at Harraton Cross, take a right turn onto the B3392 for Bigbury, Bigbury on Sea and Burgh Island.

Continue on this road, the next sign you will see will be Seven Stones Cross at a sharp left hand bend in the road, stay on this road signposted for St Ann's Chapel.

When you arrive at St Ann's Chapel take the right hand turn at the Old Chapel Inn this road is signposted for Ringmore.

Stay on this road and after about a mile you will enter the village of Ringmore, continue down the hill past the village sign you will see the Church on your right, turn down past the Church following signs for the Journeys End Inn.

After about 100 metres you will see the pub in front of you, do not drive down as far as the pub, follow the main road sharp right, then sharp left.

As the road straightens out, continue for another 150 metres and you will see a gravelled area and a wooden gate set in a stone wall with a wooden sign for 'Ringmore Vean'.

Park here and come through the wooden gate – you have arrived!
